

GENERAL CONDITIONS OF THE Alior Bank PGA POLSKA TOUR 2018

1. Rules

The tournaments will be played according to the Rules of Golf as approved by the R&A Rules Ltd., the PGA-Poland Hard Card 2018 and Local Rules approved by the Tournament Committee and published for each tournament. Each player in serious breach of the Etiquette (club throwing, swearing) may be disqualified after a single warning. Decision to enforce this penalty will be made by the Rules Official based on his evaluation of the situation (Rule 33-7). In case the Etiquette is breached by the caddie, the penalty is applied to the player who hires him. There is absolute ban on alcohol consumption on the course during tournament rounds under the penalty of disqualification. In case of disqualification for the above breach, the player will be banned from playing in two subsequent PGA-Poland tournaments which he enters and is eligible to play. In case of a repeat offence, the player will be banned from participation in PGA-Poland tournaments for a period of 2 years.

2. Eligibility

The following players are eligible to play in tournaments organised by, or under the auspices of PGA-Poland:

- PGA-Poland members with a regulated membership fee for the given season,
- PGA-Poland Applicants who passed their qualifying rounds,
- Players who received the approval of the Tournaments Director and fulfil the following criteria:
 - o Are members of other PGA's,
 - o Have documented results from other professional Tours or tournaments.

Players who are suspended or excluded from PGA-Poland membership WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO PLAY IN PGA-POLAND TOURNAMENTS WITHOUT ANY EXCEPTIONS.

3. Time of starting

Each player must start at the time established by the Committee. If the player arrives at his starting point, ready to play, within 5 minutes after his starting time, in absence of circumstances that warrant waiving the penalty of disqualification as provided in Rule 33-7, the penalty in Stroke Play for failure to start on time will be two strokes on the first hole instead of disqualification.

4. Undue delay; Slow play (Rule 6-7)

The player must play without undue delay and in accordance with any pace of play guidelines that the Committee may establish. Each group must keep its position in relation to the preceding group.

5. Definition of "out of position"

The first group will be considered "out of position" at any time during the round when it is in breach of the pace of play time guidelines. Each following group will be considered "out of position" if it breaches the pace of play time guidelines and the time difference between this group and the preceding group is greater than the starting times difference.

5.1 Procedure when group is "out of position"

A group which is "out of position" will be warned by the Rules Official. Players in this group will be timed. The time for each shot should not be longer than: first player in the group – 50 seconds for approach shot, chip or putt, and 40 seconds for the tee shot and the shot of the second, third and fourth player in the group. Outside the putting green, the time for the shot begins when the player had enough time to reach his ball, it is his time to play and he can make the shot without outside interference. Time spent on measuring the distance is included in the time to play the shot. On the putting green, the time for the shot begins from the moment, when the player had enough time to lift, clean and replace his ball, repair pitch marks and old hole plugs, remove loose impediments from his putting line. Time spent on reading the green is included in the time to play the shot. If any of the players exceeds this time he will be considered as delaying play. The Rules Official will time any player in an "out of position" group. If any of the players exceeds the above times to play their shot, he will have a "bad time". A bad time is carried over until the end of round and is not cancelled even if the group is back in position or back in the pace of play. In some situations a single player, or two players will be timed instead of the entire group. The players will not be informed that they are timed.

First breach: one penalty shot,

Second breach: two penalty shots,

Third breach: disqualification.

6. Discontinuance of play; Resumption of play

The signal for suspension of play will be a sound from the siren.

One long signal – immediate suspension of play,

Three consecutive signals – suspension of play,

Two short signals – resumption of play.

6.1 Discontinuance and suspension of play due to inclement weather (Rule 6-8)

If play is suspended by the Committee, when the players are between holes they cannot resume play until the Committee announces resumption of play. If the players have commenced play on the hole, they may discontinue play immediately or may continue play on the hole. If the players decide to continue play on the hole, they may discontinue it at any time before finishing the hole. In any circumstance play must be discontinued after finishing the hole.

6.2 Immediate suspension of play due to potentially dangerous situation (Note to Rule 6-8b)

If play is suspended by the Committee due to potentially dangerous situation, the player must discontinue play immediately following the suspension of play. If the player fails to discontinue play immediately, he will be disqualified unless circumstances warrant waiving the penalty as provided in rule 33-7.

6.3 Resumption of play

The players are obligated to resume play when the Committee declares resumption of play.

7. Practice between holes (Rule 7-2, Note 2, page 55)

(Condition is not valid in Pro-Am tournaments). Between play of holes the player cannot make any practice shots on or near the putting green of the hole last played, and cannot roll the ball on the putting green of the hole last played.

Penalty for breach of Rule: 2 strokes, added to the score of next hole.

8. Course unplayable (Rule 33-2d, page 113)

If the Tournament Committee decides that, for any reason, the course is unplayable, or that there are conditions making play impossible, it can order a temporary suspension of play, or declare play null and void and cancel all scores for the round in question. If the course remains unplayable and it will not be possible to finish a stipulated round within the time set for the tournament, this suspension of play will not be extended and the tournament results will be decided on the basis of returned scores from the finished tournament rounds. If it will not be possible to play even one stipulated round (18 holes), the tournament will be cancelled.
